BRITAIN AND FRANCE WILLING SACRIFICE NATION FOR PEACE

DEAL SATISFY HITLER'S DEMANDS REPORTED BEEN AGREED UPON

LONDON, Sept. 19.—(AP)—The governments of Britain and France today gave approval, apparently unanimous, to a tremendous international deal to satisfy Adolf Hitler and keep Europe's great democracies out of war.

With almost desperate finality the cabinets of London and Paris approved the decision made by their premiers here yesterday, accepting Hitler's demands on Czechoslovakia and proposing a system of guarantees which they hope will bring Central European peace at the price of Czechoslovakia's Sudetenland.

Breaking up their 125-minute session the British ministers merely announced they had no plans for a further meeting today. But highly authoritative sources said they had made final their previous tacit approval of the French and British premiers' agreement.

United States Ambassador Joseph P. Kennedy called at the prime minister's official residence—a daily occurrence during the current crisis—and remained 45 minutes. It was understood he was fully informed of the British and French decisions and action.

In Prague itself the Czechoslovak government faced fateful decisions on proposals communicated to it by the envoys of Britain and France.

There were indications that the Czech leaders still were standing by their previous determination to defend themselves even without the help of the western democracies and counting it the last help from Soviet Russia.

Complete official silence was maintained here after a meeting of the cabinet called yesterday last night's agreement between Prime Minister Chamberlain and Premier Deladier of France to meet the demands of the German chancellor.

'CALIFORNIA FRANK' ARRIVES CORSICANA TO STAGE BIG RODEO

FIVE PERFORMANCES WILL BE GIVEN IN CONNECTION DISTRICT FAIR

With the arrival Monday of C. F. "California Frank" Hawley in Corsicana "frank" preparations for the five big rodeo presentations that are expected to be among the chief features of the first season of the Corsicana Livestock and Agricultural Show on Oct. 5-8, entered the final phase.

Meanwhile the names of ten community sponsors from surrounding Central Texas areas had been reported to rodeo officials and several other towns have reported their sponsors have been selected with local committees.

Among those who have registered are Miss Mary John Davis of Corsicana, Mrs. W. R. Chason of Wortham, Miss Sue Savage of Dawson, Miss Betsy Hyer of Frost, Mrs. J. Weaver Alderman of Richmond, Miss Maca Savage of Malakoff, Miss Ida Marie Crews of Waco, Mrs. Cam Gunter of Mexia, Mrs. R. J. Jones of Trinidad, and Mrs. Roy Maxwell of Navarro.

"California Frank" reported on his arrival Monday that plans for the Corsicana rodeo performances were further advanced at the present time than many attractions are two days before the events are slated. He stated the tops in feature attractions had been signed and were now engaged in extensive advertising of the rodeo and fair in distant parts.

Among the big attractions will be the Ramseys, trick riders and ropers; the Schultz trio, specialty clown and novelty number, and other big features. It was announced a contract had been closed.

TWO GREAT POWERS BOW TO DEMANDS OF NAZI HOUSE PAINTER

HOWEVER, BRAVE LITTLE NATION MAY RESIST DISMEMBERMENT

(By The Associated Press.)
The governments of Britain and France, agreed on a policy of keeping the peace at almost any cost, today ratified a tremendous international deal with Germany and apparently were urging Czechoslovakia to pay the price—her Sudeten areas.

With almost desperate finality the British and foreign cabinets gave their approval, apparently unanimously, to the decision of their premiers yesterday to meet Germany's demands on Czechoslovakia.

But Czechoslovakia, which had no part in the final decisions, still was to be reckoned with. Amid increasing resentment throughout the country her cabinet met to study the Anglo-French plan that may mean her dismemberment.

Complete official silence was maintained in Great Britain but it was generally expected that Prime Minister Chamberlain would not long delay his return trip to Germany to tell Reichsfuhrer Hitler what were said to be these concessions:

1. The Sudeten German districts of Czechoslovakia which voted 75 per cent or more for the Sudeten German party in district elections last May will be considered to have decided on union with Germany.

2. As soon as practicable a new frontier will be drawn to include all districts within Germany.

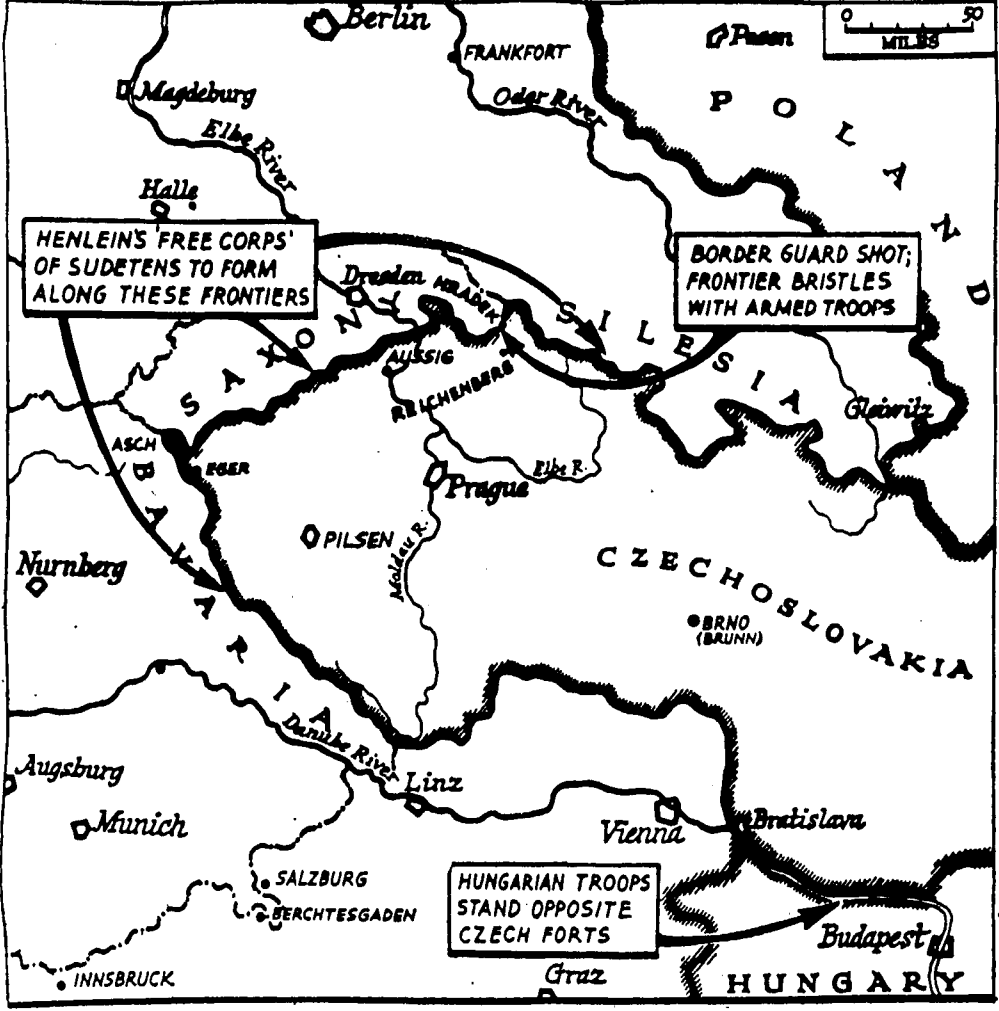

3. Districts which voted between 50 and 75 per cent for the Sudeten German candidates last May will become autonomous areas within Czechoslovakia.

4. Populations will be exchanged to safeguard the liberty of German minorities living in the Sudetenland and similar arrangements will be made for Czechoslovakia's Polish and Hungarian minorities.

5. Czechoslovakia's new frontiers will be guaranteed by the great powers and neighboring states—Britain, France, Germany, Italy, Poland, Hungary and Russia.

SPOTS OF TENSION UPON EUROPEAN MAP

Eyes of the world were focused on this Czech-German border area as diplomats sought some settlement to stave off another European war. This map shows where Konrad Henlein's armed "free corps" of army-trained Sudeten Germans is to be formed along the border in German provinces of Silesia, Saxony and Bavaria. At Hradek, on the north side of the Czech-German frontier, the killing of a soldier in a heavily fortified zone increased tension. To the south of troubled Czechoslovakia, Hungary announced counter measures to alleged Czech troop concentration by drawing up troops on the Hungarian side of the line.

RESENTMENT GROWS IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA OVER SETTLEMENT

BELIEVED PRAGUE GOVERNMENT TO RESIST ANY DISMEMBERMENT PROGRAM

PRAGUE, Sept. 19.—(AP)—Amid increasing resentment throughout the country, the Czechoslovak cabinet went into session today to consider the reported Anglo-French plan for settlement of Europe's crisis by handing the Sudeten areas over to Germany.

President Eduard Benes and his ministers started a close study of proposals in which it was believed the London and Paris governments were urging that Sudetenland—territory inhabited by the dissident German minority—be cut off and given to Germany.

Indignation over such a proposed solution of the Czechoslovak-German crisis became widely evident. From conference begun at dawn came hints that the Prague government, although hard-pressed diplomatically, would stand firmly against territorial revision.

The governing committee of the Slovak peoples' party convened at Bratislava and although there was no official announcement on the discussion, it was expected the Slovak conferees would offer support against dismemberment.

The proposals generally received an unfavorable reception in Prague. Crowds on the streets of the capital kept anxious vigil, gleaming their news from newspapers and bulletin boards.

One newspaper commented, "the government will be supported by nobody if it accepts (the Anglo-French proposals)."

Increasing fears of war brought government consideration of new banking regulations and plans for protection of the currency.

Banks were reluctant to transfer foreign funds, fearing that the exchanges would not be completed before outbreak of hostilities.

Authorities in Prague continued to confiscate editions of newspapers carrying news considered detrimental to the interests of the republic.

The permanent interim committee of parliament, headed by the president of the chamber of deputies, Jan Masaryk, is to ratify the government's declaration of a

German Clipper Lands Safely In Kings Park Area

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—(AP)—Pan-American Airways received a wireless report today from the German transatlantic clipper Nordwind that it had alighted off Kings Park in Long Island Sound, about 25 miles from the East Coast of the United States. The clipper was reported to have alighted without trouble.

First reports that the German clipper was having trouble in the heavy weather and fog came from the Boston station of the U. S. Coast Guard, which had dispatched two cutters to Edgartown, on the East Coast of Martha's Vineyard.

At Port Washington it was said that the Friesland would proceed immediately to Thompson, another ship to be brought to the Nordwind.

Pan-American said there was a crew of four aboard the Nordwind.

THOMPSON NAMED CHAIRMAN OF RAILROAD COMMISSION AGAIN AS TERRELL DECIDES STEP OUT

AUSTIN, Sept. 19.—(AP)—Ernest O. Thompson of Amarillo was named chairman of the Texas railroad commission today as an aftermath of the recent Democratic primary election.

C. V. Terrell, chairman since January, announced at the statewide prorotation hearing that because of pressure from private affairs he was turning over the chairmanship to Thompson, another commissioner who previously served in that post.

Thompson was chairman for two years prior to Terrell's selection.

In the primary Aug. 27 Terrell was defeated for re-election by G. A. Jerry Saylor of Longview.

"Thompson has at all times cooperated with me and ably assisted me in the discharge of the important duties of the position," Terrell said. "I commend him to the people as a fine executive and a great Texasan."

"I have enjoyed my service as chairman of the commission because my hands have been upheld by the operators of all the seven great industries we supervise. I wish to thank them and the people of Texas, especially those who have had close dealings with the commission, for their uniform kindness and courtesy."

Terrell received prolonged applause from standing oil men at the hearing. In additional remarks he said he had just emerged from a campaign in which he lost, that the "herd got stampeded" and he couldn't stop them.

The commission announced that in the last 30 days average bottom-hole pressure in the East Texas oil field declined 10.34 pounds per square inch.

The average pressure as of Sept. 8 on 91 key wells was 1,111.30 pounds.

The federal bureau of mines estimated market demand for Texas crude in October at 1,359,000 barrels daily, a reduction of 99,600 barrels from the September estimate.

In commenting on the estimate Thompson said "the best test of market demand is to see if the oil moves."

"Last year we produced a right smart amount of oil and much of it went into storage," Thompson added there was some indication of a pick up in business in the fall.

Joe Zeppa, East Texas operator, urged the commission to respect the marginal well law and to reduce the allowances of Texas fields. He said all wells should receive allowances under the marginal well law and the remainder should be distributed as the commission thought advisable.

Zeppa said there was danger that the whole matter of prorotation would be thrown into litigation and "stabilization" destroyed.

R. H. Foster of Fort Worth replied to Zeppa suggesting caution lest prices collapsed.

LEGIONNAIRES ARE URGED TO MAINTAIN NEUTRALITY OF U. S.

U. S. SENATOR IS SPEAKER AT LOS ANGELES MEETING OF WAR VETERANS

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 19.—(AP)—United States Senator David I. Walsh (D), of Massachusetts, addressed the opening session of the twelfth national convention of the American Legion here today on neutrality, national defense and radicalism.

In the midst of a darkness and despair that hangs over the world with human beings crying out everywhere for peace, I plead with this powerful and patriotic organization to accept the challenge to preserve peace and order here in our own America and to continue ceaseless devotion to the claims of justice," he said.

I urge a policy of unquestioned and affirmative neutrality.

"We must strain every effort, employ every means of vigilance, exhaust every alternative short of mischievous meddling to prevent civil war, and to prevent, more important, conflict, but, even more important, must protect our country from becoming entangled in the mesh of international rivalry and conspiracy which inevitably leads to war."

"The problems of youth of America are complicated and serious enough as it is, problems growing out of our own economic troubles, without our nation involving them in the fright events of another organized international catyvelam."

Refuse to Follow Dollars
"There is no doubt in my mind—and I am sure all who are mindful of the world war will agree—that the American people will never tolerate an involvement in any war to settle European troubles, to salvage foreign holdings of our own 'follow the flag' diplomat."

"As a nation, we have no preordained mandate to police the rest of the world. To meddle with the explosive rivalries of Europe—rivalries, jealousies, animosities and enemies which antedate our own origin as a free independent government—is to invite disaster."

"American neutrality must be real and genuine, fearlessly asserted and meticulously enforced, if we are to avoid international bad will and possible complications likely to lead to war."

"In my opinion the only course that will actually assure our peace of mind is to remain truly neutral, in fact, is to suspend all trade and commerce with all belligerents in time of war. Such a course may occasion some economic loss, but it

Liquor Control Board Threatens Cancel Permits

Numerous beer dealers and operators of night clubs have received stern warnings from the Texas liquor control board in recent days. They have been threatened with the cancellation of their permits if loitering of drunks, fights and other disturbances are permitted. Officers have been permitted to enter premises and conduct searches if necessary.

Local enforcement officers admit they are called frequently by the operators when customers do not conduct themselves properly, but formerly little co-operation was shown in many quarters.

Reports from the larger centers are to the effect that liquor control operatives have been doing considerable "undercover" work recently and that the permits of many establishments will be cancelled unless complaints cease.

Waco and Dallas liquor control operatives are centering their efforts on the rural night spots while the city police are looking after those located within the corporate limits.

A number of Navarro county dealers are apparently considerably worried over their permits. Several have recently been visited by the state police, but have not received their permits. It was learned from reliable sources that the delay is caused by routine work and a crowding of the personnel in the state office, or whether investigations are under way and the hold-up is due to some reason of former conduct.

Permits under question, is not known here.

GERMAN PRESS TELL OF DISMEMBERMENT PLANS TWO NATIONS

OFFICIAL CIRCLES, HOWEVER, MORE CAUTIOUS IN STATEMENTS MADE

BERLIN, Sept. 19.—(AP)—The Nazi-controlled press regarded Czechoslovakia today as already written off by France and Great Britain but official sources were more cautious.

Newspaper reports said France and Britain had decided to hand over the Sudeten German areas of Czechoslovakia automatically to Germany.

But, with official reports still not received from the German foreign office in London and Paris, foreign office circles would venture no prediction on the next steps in the crisis.

They declared they were unable even to say when the projected secret meeting between Reichsfuhrer Hitler and British Prime Minister Chamberlain would take place.

Still, however, atrocity stories from Czechoslovakia were being spread in the London and Paris dispatches.

Column after column in the newspapers were filled with stories of half-rising experiences by fugitives. No adjective was too vile to be applied to the Czechs.

Official estimates now place the number of Sudeten refugees in Germany at 100,000, an increase of 13,000 overnight.

The Fatherland front storm troopers and Heimwehr of Austria which disappeared when Austria was annexed by Germany, apparently are going to furnish uniforms for the Sudeten German "Free Corps."

The uniforms of the disbanded Austrian forces, which have been stored in Vienna since the annexation last March 13, will be flown to Bayreuth, Dresden and Breslau, centers of "Free Corps" mobilization, it was reported reliably.

Barnes Circus Play Corsicana Sunday, Oct. 2nd

W. J. Conway, contracting agent for Al G. Barnes-Sells Floto Circus, was in Corsicana Monday making arrangements for the circus to appear in this city.

The circus will be in Corsicana for two performances, matinee and night, Sunday, October 2, and the location will be at the regular circus grounds. Advertising men and other circus representatives will be in Corsicana within the next few days to complete details.

The circus will be sponsored by the Johnson-Wiggins Post of the American Legion.

Mr. Conway is well known in this city having been connected with the Ringling Brothers-Barnum and Bailey shows for many years. He was the guest of W. T. McElwee during his stay here as they being close personal friends of long standing.

It was pointed out by Mr. Conway that the Barnes show is presenting all the major attractions and features of the Ringling shows. He anticipated capacity business for both performances in Corsicana.

FOUR ISSUES THAT ARE LIKELY TO CAUSE CONGRESSIONAL ROWS SHAPING UP IN FALL CAMPAIGN

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—(AP)—Four issues which appear likely to cause wrangles in congress next winter are shaping up as sources of controversy in this fall's election campaign.

They are expansion of the federal social security program, revision of the Wagner labor act, application of the administration's farm program, and the nation's general economic condition.

Political orators are placing more and more emphasis on these points as interest in republican-democratic races mounts with the waning of the primary election season.

President Roosevelt said recently in a speech on the radio that the benefits of the federal program should be extended to a greater number of persons. In some quarters here it is reported that administration officials are considering placing domestic and agricultural workers under the law.

The prominence of old age pension as a campaign issue in several states also foreshadows much debate on that particular phase of social security. Some candidates here are offering proposals ranging from $30 a month to $50 a week.

The extent to which revision of the Wagner act will figure as a political issue may be determined in part by the amount of labor union activity during the campaign.

"Pea-Soup" Fog Ties Up Traffic New York Sector

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—(AP)—A "pea soup" fog blanketed Metropolitan New York through the night and today, disrupting traffic and causing congestion in the city streets.

Six inbound passenger liners carrying nearly 3,000 persons were trapped in the harbor, far outside the channel in the lower bay to await clearing skies before proceeding to their docks.

Queen Mary with 1,899 aboard was not expected to attempt entering the harbor until afternoon, some five to six hours later than expected.

Pink Bollworm Area Is Made Regular

AUSTIN, Sept. 19.—(AP)—Governor James V. Alford today changed the designation of Jim Wells, Brooks, Nueces and Kleberg counties from a temporary pink bollworm quarantine area to a regular one until the infestation is eliminated. San Patricio county was released from the regulated zone. The governor acted on recommendation of the state agriculture commissioner and a representative of the federal secretary of agriculture.

TRAFFIC HISTORY MADE BY TEXAS IN MONTH OF AUGUST

REDUCTION IN STREET AND HIGHWAY FATALITIES OF 43.3 PER CENT

AUSTIN, Sept. 19.—(P)—Texas made traffic safety history in August with a 43.3 per cent reduction in street and highway fatalities, state police reported today.

The August death toll was 106, a saving of 31 lives over the same period of last year when 137 persons were killed in traffic crashes. This was the greatest single-month reduction in Texas traffic records, the nearest approach being last June when there was a 33 per cent drop.

Captain Homer Garrison, Jr., assistant state police director, said the 1938 death toll rose to 1,013-228 less than the first eight months of last year. This comparatively sharp reduction was made in the face of a ten per cent increase in gasoline consumption and a five per cent increase in automobile registrations.

Texas is the only state that is showing a consistent death decrease through its active enforcement program. Traffic violation warnings and arrests have been more numerous this year in an effort to decrease street and highway accidents.

The enviable record that Texas has maintained this year is due to the strong enforcement program by state police and city officers. Captain Garrison said, "Public opinion, aroused by newspaper comments, radio and other means, has played an important part in this co-operative program."

With schools opening soon state police urged parents to provide for safe transportation of their children and to educate them against violating safety rules. At this time of year, they warned, traffic accidents begin to increase because of heavier traffic movements, inclement weather and a tendency for drivers to become careless.

News of County Home Demonstration Clubs

Oak Valley Club. Thirteen members of the Oak Valley Home Demonstration Club met in the home of Mrs. John Howell last Wednesday. Miss Clara E. Rettiger talked on "Water in the Kitchen and Drainage."

"One of the first considerations on a water system, Miss Rettiger said, should be pure water. Drainage from the stable, cow lot, etc., is dangerous. Every well should have a water tight curb extending from several feet below the surface to at least a foot above the surface. Shallow wells should also be protected from pollution by surface water. If this cannot be done, perhaps a water tight underground cistern may afford the only safe and desirable water supply."

The following references for water supply may be obtained from the extension service, A. and M. College: B-67, waterworks for Texas Farm Home, and FB-1818, Convenient Kitchens.

After a business session the meeting adjourned and refreshments were served to the members and five visitors. The next meeting will be at Miss Francis Hendon's Sept. 25.—Reporter.

DOUGLAS CORRIGAN, FAMOUS WRONG-WAY FLIER, WAS MADE COLONEL ON VISIT TO TEXAS

By HOWARD C. MASHALL. AUSTIN, Sept. 19.—(P)—Winging into his native state as plain Douglas Corrigan, the famed "wrong-way" trans-Atlantic flier left the Texas capitol as "Colonel" Corrigan.

Gov. James V. Allred, lauding the modest youngster in a flaming green shirt as an example of young men "true to the ideals and traditions of Texas," commissioned the aviator as a lieutenant-colonel on the chief executive's staff.

Thus Corrigan rightfully can be addressed as "colonel," a designation similar to the rank given his admired predecessor, Charles Lindbergh.

Besides the commission, the governor honored the distinguished flier with a present reserved for famous visitors to the Lone Star state—a 10-gallon Texas cowboy hat.

Corrigan's quip, on trying on the hat, brought a laugh from assembled thousands. Said he: "Have I got it on backwards?"

Two factors in Corrigan's personality probably account for much of his popularity with all who meet him or have occasion to associate with him.

They are his utter willingness to accommodate and his spontaneous Irish wit.

Eager to comply with everyone's wishes, the diminutive flier signed several hundred autographs during his three-hour stay in the capital city, being waylaid almost everywhere between appointments by signature hunters.

His two speeches while in Austin were replete with homely blarney of a type which only a speaker so gifted could "put over." When repeated by others, his jokes are somewhat flat and much of the charm of his remarks is lost.

There is naivete in the manner in which he depreciates his own achievements. He said he had "flew" to Ireland and his eloquent but effective good humor defies description.

Pooh-poohing Governor Allred's tribute to his bravery, Corrigan replied simply: "Well, I thought I was going to California. I knew there was solid land beneath the clouds."

The second consignment of 1937 cotton subsidy payments for Navarro county farmers arrived Monday morning. There were 395 of the checks, totaling $29,036.42. There were $27,550.31 in the Saturday consignment, bringing the total to $56,586.71.

H. C. Robinson, county agent, said Monday that as far as he knew, Navarro county was ahead of surrounding counties in the receiving of the subsidy payment checks.

The county agent said that Navarro county committee organization "was now up with the work and in some instances ahead of similarly situated counties and would stay up with the work."

Russia Is Silent. MOSCOW, Sept. 19.—(P)—Soviet Russia maintained an official silence tonight on the British-French plan for cession of Sudeten German areas of Czechoslovakia to Germany in a deal to save Europe's peace.

Some Soviet circles, however, contended that developments proved what the Soviet press has been saying for weeks—that British Prime Minister Chamberlain's policy consistently has been to reach an agreement with Reichsfuehrer Hitler at Czechoslovakia's expense.

ROOSEVELT "PURGE" CAMPAIGN ENDS TUESDAY IN BALLOTING FOR PRESTIGE IN HOME STATE

By The Associated Press. The Roosevelt "purge" campaign, unsuccessful in three other states, ends tomorrow in balloting which directly involves the president's prestige in his home state, New York.

Rep. John J. O'Connor (D-N.Y.), chairman of the key house rules committee, is up for renomination against a New Deal proponent, James H. Fay, until recently a deputy in the internal revenue bureau.

Mr. Roosevelt's long-known objections to O'Connor's return to Washington were pointed up only last Saturday in a White House statement that "of course" the president "hopes Mr. Fay will win."

New Jersey's primary campaign, foreshadowed a United States senatorial election test in November of New Deal loyalty.

William H. J. Ely, 47, unopposed in the Democratic nomination in tomorrow's primary, styled himself a "100 per cent New Dealer" and "a supporter of President Roosevelt all the way."

Former United States Senator W. Warren Barbour, 60, Republican organization candidate, devoted pre-primary campaigning to attacking Ely, and paid little attention to two primary opponents.

Two catch-names provided the principal issues as Wisconsin voters prepared to ballot in a primary election tomorrow on candidates for state offices and United States senator.

At Gov. Philip F. La Follette, head of the Progressive party, who seeks renomination for a fourth term, opponents hurled the cry, "dictator."

At Senator F. Ryan Duffy, unopposed for renomination on the Democratic ticket, Progressives and Republicans shouted "rubber stamp," in attacking the New Deal.

A small army of aspirants for public office, creating a new record for length of a Massachusetts ballot, trumped a final call for support in tomorrow's primaries—climax of a campaign almost entirely barren of national issues, but warmed by factional fights over state problems.

At stake were the Republican and Democratic nominations for Massachusetts' 15 seats in the national house, as well as those for governor and a long list of state and county posts. The state does not elect a U. S. senator this year.

Butler, four-aded battle for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination held the spotlight of public interest, with Charles F. Hurley, chunky incumbent, countering opponents' charges he was a "do nothing" governor with the assertion his "honest administration" made him the only Democrat who could be elected.

Senator Cotton Visitor. Clay Cotton of Palestine, state senator from this district, was a Corsicana visitor Sunday.

Warning District Attorney Heeded On Gaming Devices

Marble and slot machines and other gaming devices were reported by officers to be out of circulation in Corsicana and Navarro county Monday.

A statement was issued at the office of Cleo G. Miller, criminal district attorney, last week warning that unless the devices were immediately removed, Texas Rangers would be brought here.

Bruce Nutt, police chief, reported Monday no marble machines were being exhibited in the downtown sector following a deadline warning issued by Fred Prince, police commissioner, during the week-end. Constable Clarence Powell reported he had warned operators in precinct 1 and that all machines had been removed by the owners. Similar statements were attributed to Constable A. H. Holway of Kerens and W. G. Ivey of Richland.

Sheriff Rufus Pevehouse could not be contacted Monday but his deputies reported they had heard no complaints or reports of the machines being in operation Monday.

Officers intimated the machines would be seized if they re-appeared and indicated there would be no necessity of calling Rangers here for the matter.

EARLY SCORES BY BENGALS; ENNIS STUBBORN DEFENSE

LARGE CROWD ATTENDED CONTEST; ENNIS BAND AND PEP SQUAD FINE

By PAUL MOORE
Sun Sports Editor

Corsicana Tigers opened the season here Friday evening with a 19-2 decision over a fighting and well-coached Ennis Lion eleven while a large crowd, estimated at 2,500 people, attended. Deductory exercises were conducted prior to the kick-off for the new steel stands. The address was made by W. P. McCammon, president of the school board, to the memory of John P. Garitty, deceased. During the intermission between the halves, the well-trained and colorful Ennis Band and Pep Squad executed drills and maneuvers on the field that elicited unstinted praise from the Ennis and Corsicana enthusiasts.

Striking fairly early, the Bengals put over one touchdown in the first period and then two more in the second period. The Ennis defense was stubborn, but the Bengals waited for a run-away during the third and fourth stanzas, but it did not materialize.

Ennis fought their opponents throughout and out-played the Bengals. Their safety came in the third after Gathright had recovered his own fumble behind the goal line. Ennis had an opportunity to score a touchdown after driving to within the shadow of the goal, met a typical Tiger defense that stopped them. Six attempts to crack the Bengal line within yards were unsuccessful.

Outstanding Players
For Ennis, Cervantes and Shebesto, ends; Dixon, halfback, and others stood out, while for the Bengals, Emmett Gonzales, fullback; Emmett Gonzales, halfback; Johnston and Andrews, tackles; Paschal, guard; and others turned in excellent contests.

The first score came in the first period. After Corsicana had recovered a fumble on the Ennis 22-yard line; Spencer circled and for 21 yards to the 7-yard stave, and a Tiger fumble was recovered.

Ennis, who had a turnover, broke through the line, blocked the punt and then recovered the ball for a touchdown. Paschal missed the placement for point.

Gonzales, end, and Gathright, tackle, in the second stanza, Gonzales made 8. Neal carried 9 to the Ennis 9-yard stave. Crews outback off tackle to the 4.

Ennis played a stubborn defense. A pass, Gonzales to touch down. A pass, Gonzales to touch down. A pass, Gonzales to touch down.

Ennis clearly demonstrated that they will be hard to keep out of repeating as champions of the B district, and rival scouts must have been looking for Ennis.

Starting Lineups.
Ennis: Cervantes and Shebesto, ends; Tackett and Shaw, tackles; Hampel and Toler, guards; McGee, center; Haynes quarterback; Johnson and Gathright, halfbacks; Collier, fullback.

Corsicana: Ellington and Nutt, ends; Andrews and Johnston, tackles; Paschal and Weatherby, guards; Long, center; Stewart, quarterback; Spence, halfback; Robinson, fullback.

Summary:
Ennis 19, Corsicana 2. First Downs 121. Yards rushing 131. Yards passing 16. Out of 7 plays completed 1 of 3 for 25. Penalties None. Score by Periods: 10-0-0-9. Corsicana 0-13-0-0-12. Ennis 10-0-0-0-0. Scoring: Touchdowns: Johnston, Neal and Gathright (Corsicana), Gathright (Corsicana) down for Ennis safety.

Point after touchdown: Pass (Gonzales to Neal).

ANNUAL MEETING OF E. T. FOX HUNTERS SET FOR DECEMBER

BENCH SHOW WILL BE FEATURE OPENING DAY OF MEETING THIS YEAR

JASPER, Sept. 18.—(P)—Bowles Field, 10 miles east of Center, was the site chosen for the 1938 annual meeting and hunt of the East Texas Fox Hunters Association, by the board of directors at a meeting here Sept. 5. President Carl L. Dupuy of Lufkin announced. Jasper had been chosen as the site of the close of the 1937 hunt, but the board by a majority vote, recommended the change.

The board also set the date of the annual meeting and hunt for Dec. 12, 13, 14 and 15. About 300, or one of the largest entries of hounds in the history of the East Texas hunters, are expected to attend the hunt which will climax all other association hunts this year and the champions of the east and west will meet at Bowles Field for a truly great show.

Dr. V. C. Tindal of Elk City, Okla., authority on hounds, was again chosen judge for the bench show which will take place the opening day of the hunt. Tindal judged the bench at Jasper in 1937.

Phil Sanders of Nacogdoches, well known in both east and west Texas as a hound association, named master of the hounds for the hunt, the first cast of which will get under way early Dec. 13.

Shelby county has long been known for breeding outstanding fox hounds, Dawson's Stride, belonging to Hinkle Shilling of Center being state champion, said Dick Middleton, secretary of the association. Big Coaster, national champion hound belonging to Mr. Middleton, was kennelled in Shelby county, and other champions are bred there.

One Boy, also a 1937 champion, was said to have sired some of the greatest fox hounds ever seen in action in this section. These and many more noted fox hounds will be entered it was announced.

The site chosen for the hunt is in the Sam Houston national forest, which has been improved by the forest service and dedicated to the fox hunters of East Texas. It is one of the most convenient camp sites in all East Texas, Middleton said.

The most advantageous feature is the pleasant surprise of the site, which he added.

The executive committee composed of Ray Baldwin of Jasper, Elizabeth Hamilton, Mrs. Ernestine Allen, J. E. Barnes, Walter Baker and Miss Alma Baker of Dallas, and Miss Lella McGath of Austin.

As the guests were assembling Mrs. Perry McCammon gave an enjoyable music, including "Love Song" by Cadman; "Berceuse" by Godard; "Traumeri," Schumann; and "The Swan," by Debussy.

Two Hot Matches in Wrestling Card Thursday Evening

Two interesting and sometimes rough matches gave fans an interesting session at the Tammer Jones open air arena on Thursday evening, although the result of at least one match was apparent from the beginning.

The main event brought Mr. White, masked wrestler, and he is really a marvel, if you know what one means, and Sallor Barto together for the three-fall, 90-minute time limit affair. Mr. White has earned the name of "The Masked Man" and he is a large number of fans here in his two previous appearances and his activities Thursday night served only to increase his popularity.

It looked like two straight fights to Barto but the masked one let loose a hard left to Barto's stomach and he was knocked out by and then pinned the Sallor while he was still groggy with pain.

The last fall was somewhat severe for Barto, but he was not hurt by his big opponent, went after him in earnest and after flying tackles that rendered the giant almost helpless Barto was pinned to the mat. All he needed to do was fall on him for a win, but, he picked him up and staggered over near the ropes and Mr. White grabbed him and the wrestlers fell to the mat with Mr. White on top and he got the fall. Too much monkey business cost the sailor the match.

In the first match, a three-fall, 45 minute time limit affair, Cleto Duvall bested Turfy McMillen in two straight falls, but not before an interesting display of real wrestling. It looked on several occasions as though Duvall had met his match but his body self-severed him and he was so effective when he reversed and turns his victim squarely on his shoulders with his feet in the air and his entire body helpless through the ropes and scissoring legs was effective on the needed occasions and Turfy was a winner but vanquished wrestler.

BETTER DRIVING

There is good news at last in the sad field of automobile fatalities. The National Safety Council finds that in the first seven months of this year, deaths were 4,520 less than a year ago and the lowest since 1933, with far more cars in use. A fatality list of 16,030 for the seven months is still large and horrifying, when you start thinking of it not statistically, but in terms of individual pain, bereavement and destruction. But a decrease of 22 per cent in the figures means a remarkable gain in sanity, carefulness and skill on the part of millions of motorists.

Wyoming comes first on the honor roll, with a 45 per cent reduction of deaths. Then follow Pennsylvania and Michigan. Massachusetts had fewer deaths in July than for 20 years. Among cities, Providence, R. I., cut fatalities 65 per cent in the seven months. Detroit "saved" 109 lives out of her expected toll. Columbus, capital of Ohio, was the largest of the cities getting through July without a traffic death. Here is one of the finest competitions in which the nation is engaged.

CHEMICAL VACCINE

Important medical discoveries nowadays come fast. A recent discovery, reported to the Society of American Bacteriologists at San Francisco, seems likely to provide cure or protection in the case of pneumonia and other diseases, including deadly streptococcus infections, by using chemical instead of animal vaccines. The doctors may simply use the laboratory and do without the horses, rabbits and other sources now used to provide the vaccines or modified disease germs. These vaccines enable the body to fight toxic germs by producing antibodies to fight them. Dr. Walter F. Goebel of the Rockefeller Institute described a process of developing chemicals direct from the deadly germs, making "animal charcoal" of them and injecting this charcoal directly into the patient's bloodstream, with notable success. Mice given such doses, after infection with pneumonia germs, recovered. It was found that this same chemical or "charcoal" can also be made in the laboratory without using the germs to produce it. Dr. Goebel and physicians co-operating with him are naturally cautious in promises, but it looks as if a wonderful new source of cure and prevention is in sight for some of our most dreaded diseases.

It is another illustration of the fact that we are succeeding much better in fighting our individual ailments than our social ailments.

Somebody wants to know why the word "naked" is avoided by newspaper writers, while the more artificial and pendant "nude" is regarded as all right. Well, you see, "naked" is too—oh, too nude a term.

From the current millinery ads, you gather that anything a woman can fasten on her head is a hat, even though it looks to men like a pancake, a coat of arms, a tin pan or an earmuff.

Speaking of ingratitude, a Baltimore man was robbed by a fellow with a hard-luck story after buying him three bowls of soup.

JUST FOLKS

(Copyright, 1937, Edgar A. Guest)

THE CARE-FREE MAN.

"I'd like to know one day," said he,
"Completely care and worry—
When done with dread and fear
And doubt
I'd nothing have to fret about.
In all my years I've never known
A day that I could call my own.
A day, when heat or cold, or rain,
Or debt, or duty, loss, or pain,
Or disappointment, hate or strife
Were not disturbances of life.
I'd like to go from sun to sun
Just once, with care and worry done!"
And then one morning he was told:
"Today the weather's bitter cold,
But weather cold or weather
hot,
Forevermore would matter not.
They said: 'The gas bill must be paid!'
But if he heard no sign he made,
They talked of taxes! Not a sigh!
Of business failures! No reply!
Despair could trouble him no more.
The man had died the night before.

RISING TIDE.

Industrial activity continued rising during July and August. There were seasonal gains in residential and public utility building, in iron and steel production, in consumption of petroleum, coal, electric power, newspaper paper, lumber, cement, copper, boots and shoes, cotton and rayon.

These gains are regarded as more than compensating for current losses in automobile output, public works and buildings, and some other lines. Total building activity declined less than usual.

Steel, a basic product and criterion, made a big gain instead of the usual seasonal decline. Operations since the middle of July have been above 40 per cent, levels usually regarded as profitable. Automobiles, though declining in production, have been selling better than usual through July and August, and orders for new models, which will soon be on the market, are said to be good.

Altogether the stage seems to be set for a healthy improvement during the fall, carrying us up a few more notches from the depression.

Much depends on the issue of war or peace in Europe. An outbreak of war on the Continent would doubtless bring a rush of war orders. Americans, however, remembering the last war boom, should prefer the more steady and wholesome effects of peace.

Any change in the international situation which promised a stable peace in the immediate future would in itself help business in this country. The present uncertainty is a retarding factor.

WOMEN'S HATS

"Men are far more interested than ever before in what their wives and sisters and other men's wives are wearing," says Countess Fira Ilnaska, a famous fashion expert now in New York. "They have better judgment than most women, and in my opinion a man's eye is much better than a woman's. It is time that men took a stronger hand in influencing women's fashions."

With this generous comment a man is encouraged to say a few words about the new fall styles in what women call their hats. And any man who has not noticed the strange forms, colors and angles assumed by this remarkable crop of headgear, as exemplified in newspaper ads, the millinery store windows, on the streets and in church pews, may derive entertainment, if not shock, from looking around.

The infinite variety, imagination and boldness of this crop of millinery is incredible. For once, at least, women are not going in droves, all seeking the same model. Casual scrutiny has revealed, to astonished male eyes, masterpieces perched on feminine heads suggesting church spires, stew pans, skillets, inverted water buckets, stove lids, dinner bells, powder puffs, birds' wings, ice cream cones, doughnuts, racing sloops, tin cans, mixing bowls, eyeshades, weather vanes, bathing caps, earmuffs and gawdnoze what else.

SPEAKING OF HEROES!

A GREAT AMERICAN.

An American who smilingly used to say that he was a better American because he was an Irishman, a member of the House of Cardinals who was a better Cardinal because he was an American, Patrick Joseph, Cardinal Hayes, died quietly in his sleep on Sunday, leaving a gap difficult to fill.

There are differences of opinion about religion in America, as there should be among a people one of the most important tenets of whose government is freedom of religion. But there has never been any difference of opinion as to the value of the service rendered by Cardinal Hayes. He was thoroughly convinced of the truth of his own religion, the importance of the church's mission. He was equally convinced of the nobility and importance and responsibility of American citizenship. In his mind each enhanced the other. He was a thoroughly integrated individual, loved and honored by his fellow citizens in the church and outside of it.

SUPERIORITY.

Attention is invited to a remarkable statement made by American Ambassador Bullitt in a recent address to a French audience. "No nation," he declared, "has a monopoly on human virtues. No race is superior in all ways to others." Chorus of nations: "What! Not our nation!" And then, if we're going to be honest, the answer will have to come from every race and people on this dumb and bedeviled earth: "No, even we paragons of righteousness, intelligence and talent are not superior in all ways to all others."

If this could be done, starting with Hitler and Stalin and Mussolini and ending perhaps with our own modest people, the future of what scientists humorously call "Homo Sapiens," "an the Wise," would be much more secure than it is.

The Little Entente met at Bled, which is a good name for it. German statesmen say Hungary must decide now between Bled and Berlin, and it's easy to guess who'll be bled.

The dictatorship nations keep themselves poor by working their heads off making armament. The free nations keep themselves poor by loafing and arguing.

The European Arranged, after all, might be at the ballot box.

THIRTY ON THURSDAY

Why be so stingy with this miracle money? Why not ten dollars a week on Mondays to everybody up to the age of ten, twenty on Tuesday to those from ten to twenty, thirty on Wednesday to those up to thirty, forty on Thursday to those up to forty, fifty on Friday to those up to fifty, sixty on Saturday to those up to sixty and seventy on Sunday to everybody up to seventy and over?

Beautiful thought, isn't it? Where would the money come from if nobody had to work? Or, still more precious thought, would everybody have to work in proportion to his age and strength at some constructive occupation?

There is food for sober thought in these matters, as well as material for daydreaming. The time may come when everybody will have useful work to do according to his talents, and everybody will have money enough to live on comfortably. But the way to that end lies through production and on no lazy sidepath. It is well for people who hope some day to live better than they do now to realize that thirty on Thursday is still in the realm of pleasures of the imagination.

There's certainly plenty of food in the country this year; the only problem is to pass it around and pay the farmer for it.

Where is the great modern Caesar now? Hitler got his start by imitating Mussolini, but today the Duke imitates him.

Switzerland is building a barbed wire fence around its borders, just as civilized people did in Africa against savages.

If war comes again, the Allies—with Uncle Sam not present—will probably march to Berlin this time.

Sure, we Americans love the sun. You can tell by the demand for smoked glasses and cold cream.

To million of Americans the biggest event is still the news of a neighbor's barn burning down.

It is a curious type of mind which thinks the world is run by "practical politics."

As between men and principles in public life, we'll take men WITH principles.

"Hitler Has Counter Terms," say the headlines. Bargain counter terms?

The Growing Problem of TAXES

WITH the trend of estate taxes steadily upward, men with property are giving more and more thought to the problem of providing for their payment. Taxes must be paid in cash, without delay. If money is not available assets must be sold, often at a loss, to raise the needed funds.

We suggest that you discuss this matter of taxation with us at your first opportunity. Perhaps we can suggest ways of providing cash for tax payments. We may also be able to suggest a trust arrangement that will save money for your heirs.

We will gladly arrange such a discussion at your request.

Beauty Diary

of Edna Kent Forbes
YOUTHFUL FINGERNAILS.

Miss Forbes explains today how to keep fingernails from showing the effect of age or illness.

Many women feel if they keep from having lines in their skin, and retain the lines of their youth, they need not bother a bit out other tell-tale matters. It is a point to age and the condition of the fingernails is just one of these that will mean years on or off the count of anyone's appearance. You can keep healthy in a way that will always be E. H. Forbes.

A H—Either bran or oatmeal may be used with soap for the extra cleansing of the skin. An astringent used every day should hardly be necessary, and when your skin is so very dry it will be apt to increase this tendency. Cold water rinsing after bathing will always tone the skin and contract the pores.

If you have any beauty problems you cannot solve, write for Edna Kent Forbes' three NEW beauty booklets: (1) "Fifteen Minutes a Day for Beauty," (2) "The Finger Points of Beauty," (3) "Eating and Bathing for Beauty." Send ten cents (in stamps) for EACH booklet, and for a list of books and a list of addresses (A. A. S. S.). Address Edna Kent Forbes, c/o this paper.

CANDIDATES FOUR SENATE AND 87 HOUSE SEATS BE SELECTED

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—(AP)—Candidates for four senate and 87 house seats remain to be chosen at primaries and conventions in six states this month.

New York winds up the procession on the last day of the month. At that time, Republican and Democratic conventions will pick the candidates for two senate seats.

Next Tuesday, busiest of the remaining primary days, candidates for 84 of the house and two of the senate seats will be chosen. National interest will center on the outcome of the renomination fight of Rep. John J. O'Connor of New York, one of the four Democrats marked by President Roosevelt for political extinction.

The other three—Senators George of Georgia, Smith of South Carolina and Tydings of Maryland—came through victorious. Massachusetts, New Jersey and Wisconsin hold their primaries Tuesday, the latter two selecting candidates for two senate seats, now held by Democrats, as well as filling their house seats.

Of the 84 house seats for which nominations will be made that day, 42 now are held by Democrats, 34 by Republicans, seven by Progressives, and one is vacant.
